2. Enter your information as indicated on the screen shown below. If someone referred you to this site, their referral code will either appear, if you used their referral link, in the “Referral Code” field, else, you may enter it manually. If no one referred you, leave that field blank.

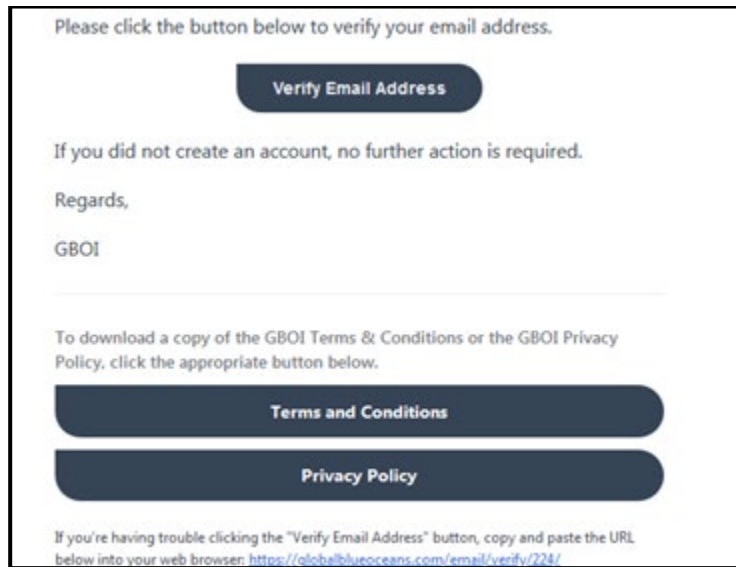

Once all is filled in, please read the Terms and Conditions and Privacy Policy above the “SIGN UP” button. Then, click the two associated checkboxes for accepting them at the bottom and click on “SIGN UP”.

3. You will then be prompted to verify your email address. An email will be sent to the address you just entered.

- Go to your registered email inbox, read the message, and click on the “Verify Email Address” button, as shown below.

- This verification will open a Login screen (as shown in 2. above) in a new Tab on your browser. Enter your email and password.
- This time, and every time you log in, there will be a second verification. A code will be sent to the mobile phone number that you provided; or you can choose to click on the “Resend By Email” button shown below the code (a window will appear to show “Success”, press “OK” to close that window). Enter the 7-digit code, either from your phone or email address and it will automatically bring you the next step. (No need to hit “Return”.)

One-Time Password

Before proceeding, please enter the verification code you received on your phone. If you did not receive one click on one of the options below.

- You will then be prompted to choose your language. Once selected, click on “NEXT STEP”.

Hello Michelle

Thank you for taking the first step and joining our Association. In order to protect your privacy, we asked for minimal information about you on the public side of our website.

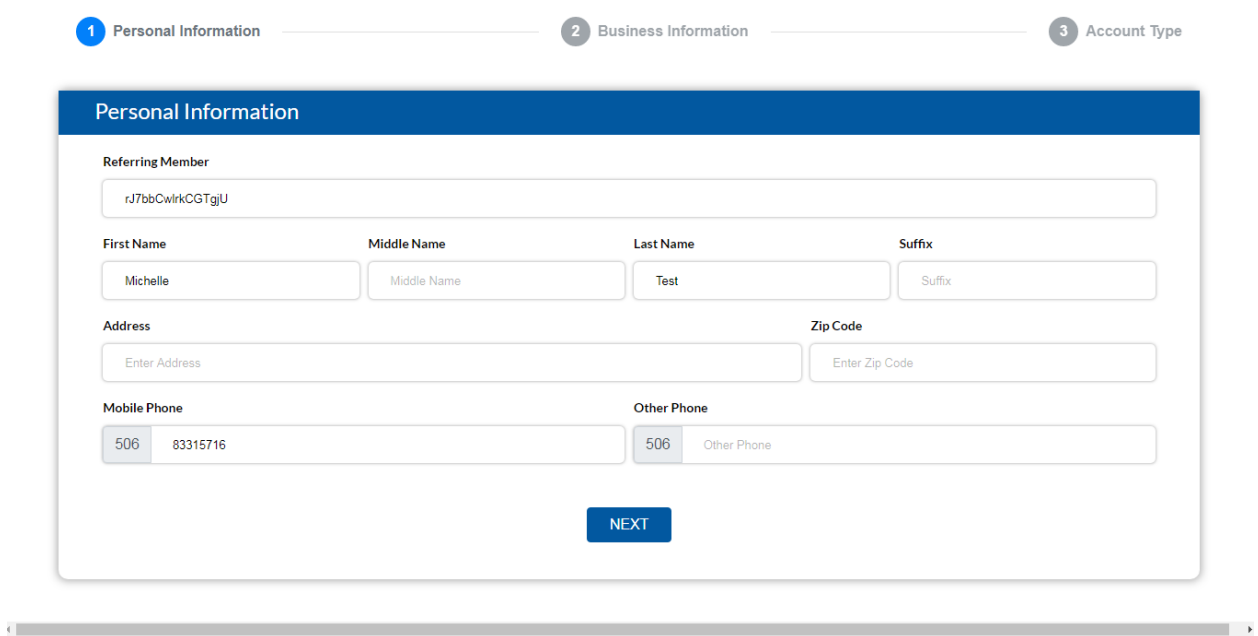

Now, to serve you better and provide the very best experience within our Private Membership, we need to know a few more things here on the fully secure inside of our GBOI website.

What is your preferred language?

English

NEXT STEP

- Please note that your privacy and security is our utmost priority; therefore, the next window will bring you in your private and secure site, where you can fill in your Personal Information.
- The next page will ask you to fill out your Personal Information, including name, address, and phone numbers.

NEXT

Click on “NEXT” once complete.

10. A new screen will be displayed asking for your Business Information, if applicable, including its name, coordinates and your role, as well as, if your business relates to the shipping industry, the number of ships owned or leased, and the fuel type required. Once this section is complete or skipped, click on “NEXT”.

The screenshot shows a registration form titled "Business Information (optional)". It contains several input fields: "Business Name", "Business Address", "Business Zip Code", "Phone Number" (with a dropdown for area code "506"), and "Business Other Phone" (also with a dropdown for area code "506"). There is a dropdown menu for "My role in Business" with "Owner" selected and a green checkmark. Below that is a field for "Number of Ships Owned or Leased" and a button labeled "Add Fuel Type". At the bottom are "BACK" and "NEXT" buttons.

11. Your next registration step is to choose your account type (Individual or Family) and upload a valid Document (two-sided National ID or Passport) identifying you.

Once done, you are ready to click on the “SUBMIT” button.

12. Success! You are now fully registered in the GBOI private membership as a general member and ready to begin your next steps.
